a better appearance. Last year the society was one of the features of the parade of the civic section. This year upwards of 70 young Polish men will be in line, and all will wear white caps trimmed with the national colors, red, white and blue, white shirtwaists, black trousers, black shoes, white gloves and will carry canes. It was the club's intention to hire the Norwich Polish brass band, but that organization has an engagement for the Fourth. The society had a drill recently and will hold another Sunday afternoon in final preparation for the big celebration.

A number of young Polish men of the city have formed a Naturalization club. Organization was effected in St. Joseph's Polish hall on lower Main street. A list of 45 members has already been obtained. The officers of the Polish Naturalization club as elected are as follows: President, Andrew Ogozalek; vice president, Frank Olschkiewievez; recording secretary, Josef Nowak; financial secretary, Stanislaus Ziemba; treasurer, Anthony Klasiniski; marshal, Josef Gumula; trustues, Michael Wojcik and Thomas Kopacz.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN. Considerable Business at Tuesday's Adjourned Meeting.

At the adjourned meeting of the board of aldermen Tuesday evening a requisition for supplies for the first department was referred to the purchasing committee with power. An in-vitation signed by Marshal Frank P. Fenton and Joseph M. Berard to the gavor and council to review the pa ade on July 4 was read and accepted. The matter of the extension of the rater main in Lewiston avenue was referred to the water committee for in-vestigation and report. A resolution that the city construct a sidewalk around the fown building, the town to around the fown building the town to pay two-thirds and the city one-third, was adopted. Following the passage of a resolution eliminating the words "captain of police" from the city charter wherever they appear, Mayor Dunn appointed E. H. Richmond chief of police and the appointment was unanimously confirmed by the council. A resolution was adopted fixing the salary of the chief of police at the same figure received by the former captain. The sidewalk question was then dis-The sidewalk question was then dis-cussed, and the proposed amendment changed in several respects.
